

GWSS Insecticide Environmental Monitoring Meeting Notes

Environmental Monitoring Branch
Department of Pesticide Regulation
PO Box 4015, Sacramento, CA 95812
www.cdpr.ca.gov/docs/gwss

Greg Van Wassenhove, Santa Clara County Ag. Commissioner, addresses residents

San Jose Residents Meeting:

Aug. 2, 2001; 6-7 p.m.

Magic Sands Mobile Home Park, San Jose
Attendees: Santa Clara Co. Ag. Commissioners, California Department of Food and Ag (CDFA), Department of Pesticide Regulation (DPR), UC Cooperative Extension, a vintner, and over 50 residents.

Purpose: to address residents' concerns regarding treatment of glassy-winged sharpshooter (GWSS) infestations with carbaryl and imidacloprid.

monitoring results from other counties.

- 3) A vintner presented the importance of controlling GWSS and Pierce's Disease.

Johanna Walters (left) answers questions on DPR's environmental monitoring activities and a resident signs up for our newsletters.

Roger Spencers (CDFA) discusses sharpshooter's identification and biology.

Highlights:

- 1) Officials (County and CDFA) presented plan to treat about 13 properties at Magic Sands with imidacloprid soil injection and carbaryl foliar spray.
- 2) DPR presented information and addressed questions on air and foliar sampling in San Jose and

Dr. Peter Kurtz (CDFA) addresses health questions regarding the insecticide applications

For more information on GWSS insecticides monitoring contact Kean S. Goh, kgoh@cdpr.ca.gov or (916) 324-4072