

2006 Department of Pesticide Regulation License and Certificate Renewal Notice

M thru Z License and Certificate holders (Expiration 12/31/05): The 2006-07 renewal application forms are currently not available on our web site. We are sorry for any inconvenience this may cause you. However, they will be posted to our web site shortly after the renewals are mailed and will be available for your use.

In early September 2005, the Department of Pesticide Regulation (DPR) will be mailing renewal notices/packets to all individuals whose licenses and/or certificates expire on December 31, 2005. The renewal packets will contain all of the required documents and the specific CE hours, fees, etc. needed to renew your license or certificate. Please do not send renewal forms or fees prior to receiving your renewal packet in the mail.

In early October 2005, DPR will be mailing renewal notices/packets to all businesses whose licenses expire on December 31, 2005. The renewal packets will contain all of the required documents and the specific branch locations, fees, etc. needed to renew your license or certificate. Please do not send renewal forms or fees prior to receiving your renewal packet in the mail.

Also included in the renewal packets will be a “Questions and Answers (Q&As) Sheet” that answers some of the most common questions about renewing your license/certificate. Additional Q&As will be available on our website in September 2005 at www.cdpr.ca.gov. Please click the Licensing and Certification tab and you will find it under Publications and Outreach Materials.

If you do not receive your renewal packet by the end of September (individuals) or end of October (businesses), please contact DPR immediately by calling (916) 445-4038.

As licenses and certificates are renewed, the DPR website “List of Persons and Businesses with Valid Licenses” will be updated to reflect changes and new expiration dates.

NOTE: If you need a renewal application form to renew your expired 2004 license/certificate, please contact DPR by calling (916) 445-4038.
