Pesticide Regulation
2013

The following companies have submitted documentation to the Department of Pesticide Regulation (DPR) stating that they have a closed system, or component thereof, which demonstrates compliance with the Director's Closed System Criteria. DPR determined at the time of review that these companies meet the Director's Closed System Criteria. This is not an endorsement or recommendation by DPR. DPR does not certify or otherwise license any closed system. Additionally, companies not appearing on this list may have systems that meet the Director's Criteria, but have not submitted documentation to DPR. Closed system users should be aware that they are responsible for system compliance under operational conditions.
