FLEX YOUR POWER! The energy challenge facing California is real. Every Californian needs to take immediate action to reduce energy consumption. For a list of simple ways you can reduce demand and cut your energy costs, see our Web site at <www.cdpr.ca.gov>.

Overview, Continued

Costs The Department of Pesticide Regulation will pay per diem and registration for one attendee per county. Please provide the name, address, telephone number, and e-mail address of the representative designated to attend the conference to <rhirose@cdpr.ca.gov>. Due to budget limitations, DPR can only fund one attendee per county.

However, any county planning to send additional staff to the conference may do so by contacting Carol Ramsay at <ramsay@wsu.edu>. Registration payments may be submitted directly to Ms. Ramsay. Counties may also refer to the conference web site using the web address information listed below.

County reimbursement The county will be reimbursed for actual expenses incurred by their employees while attending this conference. Please refer to Enforcement Letter ENF 2000-037 for reimbursement information.

County employees are to submit claims for reimbursement directly to the county for transportation expenses, per diem, and conference registration. Additional information regarding county reimbursement will be provided at a later date.

Registration deadline DPR's registration deadline is Friday, July 6, 2001. The names of conference attendees must be submitted to Roy Hirose, Senior Pesticide Use Specialist, at the e-mail address above.

Counties wanting to send staff after the July 6, 2001 deadline must do so at their own expense, directly with Carol Ramsey, Conference Registrar.

Additional information Details of the conference are available on the web at <<http://pep.wsu.edu/ncodm/conf01.html>>.
